AREA DESCRIPTION

Sedona is located in the breathtaking Red Rock country of Northern Arizona, at the base of the Coconino National Forest (the largest forest of Ponderosa Pines in the World).

Thousands of years ago, the Sedona area was submerged below an inland sea channel. The erosion of the water channel caused a canyon to form out of the red colored sandstone, which was at the seabed. As the sea recessed, the Sedona area emerged at the base of what is now called the Oak Creek Canyon, and is surrounded by the remains of the red sandstone mountains which originally held the inland sea channel. The result is a magnificently scenic wooded area, which attracts over 4,000,000 tourists per year (1.5 times the population of the largest city in Arizona, Phoenix/Scottsdale).

Situated at an elevation of approximately 4,500 feet, it enjoys four relatively mild seasons that accommodate the many activities this area offers. While it benefits from its proximity to the wonder of the Grand Canyon (100 miles to the North), the winter recreation in nearby Flagstaff (approximately 35 miles to the North) and the shopping and cultural activities in Scottsdale (120 miles to the South), Sedona has become a vacation destination in its own right.

AREA DESCRIPTION (CONT'D)

The influx of an affluent population from other parts of the United States has given Sedona a nationally known image as a year-round tourist area, second home and affluent retirement area. Recent years have provided Sedona with a level of visibility that is rapidly spreading worldwide. Sedona's dramatic red rock setting has been written about in the New York Times, Los Angeles Times, Wall Street Journal, USA Weekend, Forbes, Lifestyles of the Rich and Famous, Good Morning America and Life Magazine, just to name a few.

According to a recent study by a local survey firm, Arizona residents account for only 30 percent of Sedona area visitors. California is the second most significant source of visitors, accounting for approximately 20 percent, while the Midwest, Northeast and Southern regions of the U.S., along with other Western states, each account for an additional 10 percent of visitors. Foreign countries account for the balance of Sedona's visitors.

Approximately 60 percent of visitors arrive in Sedona by car, while an additional 25 percent arrive in Arizona, first by plane, and then travel to Sedona by car. Overall, tourists named sightseeing and art galleries as the primary reasons for visiting the Sedona area and approximately 40 percent of the visitors travel to Sedona more than once per year. Next to scenery, the weather is a major factor for Sedona's popularity as the average daily maximum temperature is 74.7 degrees (F) and only 17.15 inches of precipitation annually. It should be noted that the average snow, sleet and hail equates to 8.8 inches.

The appeal of Sedona and the surrounding area has resulted in significant population growth. From 1990 to 2000, the year-round population base increased more than 43%. Not only has the population base of Sedona and the Village of Oak Creek expanded rapidly, it has done so while maintaining an affluent retirement orientation. Moreover, Sedona maintains a per capita income approximately 50% above the Arizona average. The retirement orientation is also evident, as the median age of Sedona and the Village of Oak Creek residents is 54.9 and 50.0 years respectively, substantially above the state average of 32.2 years.

JOHN D. MILLER

After graduating from the University of Texas at Austin with a degree in Finance and Business Administration, John was selected from 500 applicants to participate in the CB Commercial 2-year national training program.

The program was a pilot effort to intensively train new commercial real estate brokers in property management and leasing, mortgage brokerage, equity brokerage, development, appraisal services, construction, and institutional liaison services.
